

Name: _____

Date: _____

VOCAB: Library Lion

striding	twitched	demanded stern	overdue	circulation to forcefully state something must be done the act of passing something from one person to another person very serious in an unfriendly way late or not paid when expected to be to make a slight and sudden movement walking quickly with very long steps

Directions: Cut out the flap-ups. Put glue under the Vocabulary tab. Under each flap, write the words in a sentence.

VOCABULARY: Library Lion

striding

stern

twitched

overdue

demanded

circulation

Name: _____

Date: _____

VOCAB: Rosie Revere

engineer	perplexed	wheezed inventions	sputtered	thrill to make a series of explosive noises new creations breathing with a whistling sound a person who designs or builds engines, machines, or systems completely confused; baffled a sudden feeling of excitement

Directions: Cut out the flap-ups. Put glue under the Vocabulary tab. Under each flap, write the words in a sentence.

VOCABULARY: Rosie Revere

engineer

inventions

wheezed

perplexed thrill

sputtered

Name: _____

Date: _____

VOCAB: Me... Jane

cherish	pursue	encourage discovery	curious	observe to give support or advice to someone the act of finding something out to protect or care for someone lovingly to watch something closely eager to know or learn something to go after something

Directions: Cut out the flap-ups. Put glue under the Vocabulary tab. Under each flap, write the words in a sentence.

VOCABULARY: Me... Jane

cherish

curious observe pursue

encourage discovery

Name: _____

Date: _____

VOCAB: Salt in His Shoes

pursuit	sprinkled	determination apologize	confident	opponents

Rooted in Reading
Helping Kids Find Their Way to Success

	believing in one's self to say sorry the act of trying to accomplish something sticking with something even when it is really hard the other team; who you are playing against poured small amounts

Directions: Cut out the flap-ups. Put glue under the Vocabulary tab. Under each flap, write the words in a sentence.

VOCABULARY: Salt in His Shoes

pursuit

apologize

sprinkled

opponents

determination

confident

Name: _____

Date: _____

VOCAB: Catching The Moon

response	eagerly	mustered gleamed	pennant	linger

	shined brightly gathered up something like strength or courage to hang around longer than necessary a verbal answer to do something in an excited way the winning of a championship

Directions: Cut out the flap-ups. Put glue under the Vocabulary tab. Under each flap, write the words in a sentence.

VOCABULARY: Catching The Moon	response gleamed eagerly pennant mustered linger

Name: _____

Date: _____

VOCAB: Miss Rumphius

moist	hollow	conservatory fetch	lupines	sowing tall, colorful flowers with edible seeds valley planting or scattering seeds a glass room used to grow plants slightly wet or damp to go get

Directions: Cut out the flap-ups. Put glue under the Vocabulary tab. Under each flap, write the words in a sentence.

VOCABULARY: Miss Rumphius

moist

fetch

hollow

lupines

conservatory

sowing

Name: _____

Date: _____

VOCAB: KOALA LOU

ROOTED in Reading

splendid	compete	hush preparations	spectators	flung taking part in a contest and trying to win the action of getting ready a silence

	thrown forcefully people watching a game or sport magnificent or impressive

Directions: Cut out the flap-ups. Put glue under the Vocabulary tab. Under each flap, write the words in a sentence.

VOCABULARY: Koolha Lou

splendid compete

spectators

flung

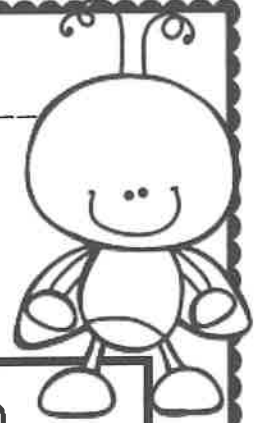

hush

preparations

Name: _____

Date: _____

VOCAB: Fireflies!

polish	dim	grasp
thrust	dulling	aim to push something with force to hold something with your fingers to point or direct something in a specific direction not bright or clear to cause something to become less shiny to make something smooth and shiny by rubbing it

Directions: Cut out the flap-ups. Put glue under the Vocabulary tab. Under each flap, write the words in a sentence.

VOCABULARY: Fireflies!

polish

dim

aim

grasp dulling

thrust

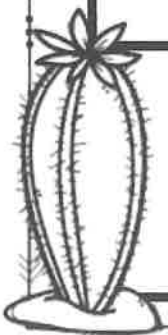

Name: _____

Date: _____

VOCAB: The Three Little Gavelinas

steep	panting	cackle
tender	suspicious	raggedy

	breathing with short quick breaths having a soft texture; easy to chew rising or falling sharply scruffy or shabby a loud, sudden laugh showing distrust in someone

Directions: Cut out the flap-ups. Put glue under the Vocabulary tab. Under each flap, write the words in a sentence.

VOCABULARY: The Three Little Javelinas

steep

tender

panting

suspicious

cackle

raggedy

Name: _____

Date: _____

VOCAB: Sharks

predator	rare	gliding
grinding	blend	prey to hide due to similar colors rubbing together until something is crushed an animal that kills and eats another animal not happening often moving in a smooth way an animal that is hunted and killed by another animal

Directions: Cut out the flap-ups. Put glue under the Vocabulary tab. Under each flap, write the words in a sentence.

VOCABULARY: Sharks	predator prey grinding
	blend
	rare
	gliding