Directions: Write examples of nouns under the correct flaps.

verbs

A verb is a word that shows the action in a sentence.

Write a sentence to go along with each illustration.
Circle all of the action verbs.

adjectives

An adjective is a word that describes a noun.

How many? What kind? What color? What does it sound, look and taste like?

Your puppy is so small and cute!

Mom bought a dozen chocolate donuts.

I cannot play until I clean my messy bedroom.

Circle the adjectives and underline the noun that the adjective describes. Under the flap, write a sentence with different adjectives to describe the same noun.
Example: The puppy is black and white.

adverbs

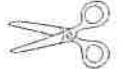

An adverb is a word that describes a verb.

How? When? Where? How often?

The puppy quickly ate his dinner.

Tomorrow we will go grocery shopping.

I often walk to school on nice days.

Circle the adverbs and underline the verb that the adverb describes. Under the flap, write a sentence with a different adverb to describe the same verb.

Example: The puppy ate his dinner inside.

Pronouns

A pronoun is a word that replaces a noun in a sentence.

Jack does not like the book.

Mom and I went out for dinner.

Tia can't play until Tia's
chores are done.

The teacher told the class to study.

Rewrite the sentence replacing the underlined noun with a pronoun that makes sense.

PLURAL NOUNS

A plural noun is more than one person, place or thing.

Most nouns are made plural by adding an _____.

If a noun ends in s, ch, sh, x or z add _____.

If a noun ends in a consonant and then a y, drop the y and add _____.

If a noun ends in f or fe, drop the f or fe and add _____.

Fill in the rules and then add plural noun examples for each rule under the flaps.

irregular nouns
